

WANTED

INFORMATION LEADING TO
THE DISCOVERY OF WORKERS'
COMPENSATION OR DISABILITY FRAUD

Watch for fraud and report it.

Making a knowingly false statement for the purpose of obtaining workers' compensation or disability benefits is a crime punishable by up to 5 years in state prison, $50,000 fine and full restitution.

Insurance fraud costs USC and it costs all of us—but you can help by reporting workers' compensation or disability fraud to the anonymous fraud hotline:

(888)
323-3832

USC University of Southern California

Sponsored by USC's disability and workers' compensation administrator, Broadspire, and their partner RJN Investigations.